Items of Interest to the Community: None.

Minute Approval: None.

Scheduled Guests: None.

Unscheduled Guests:

- Robbie Greis approached city council to share his concerns about a neighbor's dog that continues to be a problem, barking all hours of the night. Mr. Greis stated that he was having trouble getting in touch with someone that could help him with this problem. There was discussion between Mr. Greis and Chief Collinworth on how this problem should be handled.

Old Business:

- Authorization for the Interlocal Agreement between the City of Cold Spring, Kentucky and the City of Crestview, Kentucky for the provision of code enforcement services. Paul Kloeker made a motion. Adam Sandfoss seconded the motion. Adam Sandfoss asked for confirmation that we are hiring another part-time code enforcement officer, Chief Collinworth said that he will start looking to fill that position now that council has approved the agreement. Mr. Sandfoss also suggested that code enforcement and the police department get updated regularly on the code of ordinances to avoid any confusion. Roll call vote shows 4 yeses and 0 noes. Motion passed.
- Ordinance 22-1075, an ordinance amending the Cold Spring Zoning Ordinance pertaining to section XIV, Sign Regulations for the City of Cold Spring. Adam Sandfoss made a motion. There was extensive discussion about temporary signs and what is allowed in regards to temporary signs at homes and/or businesses, political signs, real estate signs, and advertisement signs. Council discussed the length of time signs are allowed to be out, the size of a sign, what signs require a permit and how much the city charges for a permit. Lisa Cavanaugh made a motion to table this so that council can further discuss how they want to enforce the sign ordinance. Adam Sandfoss seconded the motion. Brandon Voelker suggested that council do some research before the next meeting.
