

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 22-04

WHEREAS, KRS 83A.130(10) provides for the mayor to delegate executive functions when unable to attend the duties of office, and

WHEREAS, although available by electronic or telephonic contact, for the period of November 10, 2022 through November 15, 2022, the Mayor of the City of Cold Spring, Kentucky will be traveling at a distance from city limits such that in the event of an emergency situation could not immediately return for on-site decision-making.

NOW THEREFORE, for the time period designed above, DO I, David Angelo Penque, MAYOR of the City of Cold Spring, Kentucky, delegate to Police Chief Steve Collinsworth the authority and power to perform all necessary executive functions, other than the ability to approve ordinances, promulgate regulations or execute any personnel related decisions (excepting police department personnel from this order), for the City of Cold Spring, Kentucky on my behalf. In the event that Chief Steve Collinsworth is unable to perform these duties due to incapacity or unavailability, I delegate to City Administrator Steve Taylor as an alternate with the authority and power to perform all necessary executive functions, other than the ability to approve ordinances, promulgate regulations or execute a personnel related decision, for the City of Cold Spring on my behalf:

WITNESS my hand this 10 date of November 2022.

David Angelo Penque

[Signature], MAYOR

COUNTY OF CAMPBELL
COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY

Subscribed and sworn to before me a notary public in and for the Commonwealth of Kentucky by David Angelo Penque, Mayor, the above appointment and alternate appointment as his/her true act and deed this 10 day of November 2022.

My commission expires:

1/7/2025
